

Scott Blackley

scott_blackley@wealthdevelopmentstrategies.com

Senior VP of Wealth Development Strategies, L.L.C. in Houston, TX. He is in charge of the office in League City, TX. Scott has his Life Underwriter Training Council Fellow (LUTCF) designation. Scott focuses on helping those with whom he develops relationships to make intelligent financial decisions for their families, while providing individual strategies for the efficient use of their money. Scott views his role as that of an advocate for his clients and those who depend upon them. His areas of specialization include estate planning, retirement planning, risk management, and planning for special needs families. Scott works with businesses to develop planning strategies in four critical areas – retirement, estate, key employee, and succession planning.

Scott is actively involved in his community. Scott is a member of the Seabrook Rotary Club, Clear Lake Chamber of Commerce, NAIFA (National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors), BNI (Business Networking International), and the League City Masonic Lodge. Scott graduated from Angelo State University in San Angelo, TX with a bachelor's degree in business administration and holds a degree in process technology from San Jacinto College. Scott holds a certificate from the Institute for Entrepreneurial Leadership & Advancement Class of 2014 from Babson College. A Wharton Advanced Planning Certificate from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania.

Scott is also a member of the Bay Area Rugby Club (BARC). Scott is a player coach and VP of the team. He volunteers his services to the Lone Survivor 15's Tournament which benefits those who have served in the armed forces. Scott has started and completed two years of the Space City 7's Rugby tournament in League City, TX. He attends meetings and helps with HYRA (Houston Youth Rugby Association).

While at Angelo State, he played rugby on the university's team, and is currently the alumni chair for Angelo State University Rugby. Scott is one of the founding members of his college team. Scott and his wife Jenny have two children, Ethan and Audrey, and make their home in League City.